

BOOK SIGNING EVENT

Between Two Harbors; Reflections of a Catalina Harbormaster

Former Catalina Island Harbormaster, Doug Oudin, has recently published a book of his life on the Island. On Friday afternoon, October 18, 2013, Mr. Oudin will be at the California Yacht Club between 4 and 6 PM to offer a book signing.

He will have his book available for $18.00 and will also sign any books that have already been purchased through Amazon.com or Barnes and Noble.

His story, chronicling his 32 years living and working in Two Harbors offers a multitude of stories, including his involvement in the tragic death of actress Natalie Wood, dramatic ocean rescues, ferocious storms, and a number of personal life adventures and situations he experienced while living and working for the Harbor Department at the Isthmus of Catalina Island.

If you intend to purchase a signed copy of his book, please bring a check or cash only, as credit cards cannot be accepted.

California Yacht Club will be hosting the event in their lounge room, and the club will have the bar open for beverages. Friday, October 18, 2013 4pm to 6pm
