On the Water Race Starting Clinic
Saturday, April 6, 2013

We are hosting a starting clinic free of charge for both novice and experienced Marina del Rey sailors to improve their starting skills.

10:00 AM: We will present unique perspectives on starting rules & strategies at an abbreviated Chalk-Talk. Mentors will be offered to skippers and those without boats will be offered one. Racers with experience are encouraged to join us out on the water.

12:30 to 2:30 PM: We will feature repeated sequences near the SS mark outside the MDR detached breakwater. Rolling five-minute starts for Over 30' and Under 30' fleets will include short breaks to adjust the start line. Afterward, a recap will be held at SMWYC. If possible videos of starts will be shown in the main dining-room.

There is no charge and sailors new to racing are encouraged to attend. Coffee and pastries will be offered in the morning; burgers & hot dogs are available at the bar in the afternoon.
