

This Week at SMWYC

January 11 to January 18th, 2015

I wanted to start this first communication via “This Week” with all the members, by signing in as your new Commodore.

I want to thank all who voted for me and to those that did so because they wanted to entrust me with their wishes for the club to grow and prosper in the coming year and for many years to come. So now that we have all settled in from the year-end’s activities and festivities, I would like to pass on some of the information on upcoming events in our club.

I hope all of you have had a chance to see the Green Bay/ Dallas game, have enjoyed Zerimar and Fritz dueling guitars and feasted on Danny’s nourishments, and are getting ready for some serious Football watching in your club.

Monday, January 12th: No. 2 Oregon will square off against No. 4 Ohio State for the national championship. Bar opens at 5 PM, Danny will provide something appropriate to go with the game!

On the same day, the race committee now Chaired by Besim Billman will be meeting in the Boardroom at 19:00, all who have an interest in sailing and racing are invited to attend, we need volunteers to help put out the Super Bowl Regatta on January 25th, which Steve Potter says it will be the biggest one yet since we now have a very active Junior program. The dining room will be taken by Toastmasters, a non profit organization to which your Vice Commodore Hartmut is part of it, come and see what it is all about.

Tuesday, is the day for the postponed Board Meeting to which ALL the membership should attend since it is the club’s business that will be discussed and everyone should be informed and share their views for the success of our club. The board meets at 6pm and the General membership can attend from 7pm on in the Boardroom. WSA will be having their first meeting of the year in the Dining Room from 6:30 till 9:30, so the bar will be open.

Wednesday, Rick Toomin will prepare his popular Chicken Salad at 7:30, with ribs as Hors d’oeuvre. So, come and enjoy this first “No Cooking Wednesday” meal, being offered for $15.00 with reservations at reservations@smwyc.org ($18.00 without) by noon on Wednesday.

Thursday, is Weight Watchers day to which all members are welcomed to participate and enjoy this great way of getting rid of the extra pounds gained over the holidays they have two sessions, a morning and afternoon one

Saturday, is another big day for us as we have our “Learn to sail class” for our juniors with Steve Potter from 11 till 12:30 (tell the kids you know about this great program), then from 12pm till 3pm is “Open Sailing” time. And in the evening we will have a birthday party event in our dining room from 6 till 12pm, bar will be open for members.

Sunday, January 18th will be a Rock and Roll extravaganza with our own Lee Rhoads and his Road Gang once again packing the house with music you can dance to and enjoy yourself with friends.

In Coming Weeks:

January 25th Super Bowl Charity Regatta with many classes of boats for juniors and adults to participate

January 30-February 1st, It's coming up on SMWYC's first cruise of 2015, the Superbowl Cruise to KHYC, returning to SMWYC in time for the game and festivities. We expect that some folks will want to sail down on Friday or Saturday. Others may wish to drive down to KHYC for Friday appetizer dinner or Saturday potluck. More info will be forthcoming on the website or by email. Don't miss this opportunity for a great cruise with your fellow club members.

Please do not forget to check when you are scheduled to do your “Officer of the Day” (O.D.) duty, it is the only thing REQUIRED of you to do, remember this is a mostly volunteer club and only volunteers make it happen.

Ask not what your club can do for you, ask instead what you can do for your club.

Your Commodore, Themis Z. Glatman _/)
